Dear Parents/Carers,

Just a few pieces of information before we break up for a well-deserved two-week holiday today.

Welcome

Welcome to George Wiggins-Morris who has joined us in P3 this week. I hope you and your family will settle into life here at Alehousewells school and will enjoy being part of our friendly and welcoming community.

Parent Council AGM

Following the recent AGM, I can confirm that Alastair McLennan has been elected as the Treasurer for this year. (Joan P4).

Staffing news

During the holidays, Miss Bremner is getting married and will return as Mrs Laird. We wish her all the very best for her wedding day and hope that the sun shines!

Clothing

Please remember to send your children to school suitably dressed. Pupils should be wearing school uniform unless it is a PE day, when they can come dressed in appropriate PE clothes. Please also bear in mind the weather and ensure that your children are warm enough and have a jacket for being outside. Many thanks for your cooperation in this matter.

The Heron Herald

P7 have just published the first edition of The Heron Herald, a pupil friendly newsletter. All classes have received a copy and the initial feedback has been fantastic. The first copy includes interviews with Mrs Hendrick, Pupil and Family support worker, as well as the House Captains, a reminder about the activities on offer at lunchtime and a wordsearch to name but a few. Well done Mrs Fraser and P7. You have done an amazing job and we have thoroughly enjoyed reading it.

Parent Council Hallowe'en trail

Please find attached a flier for the Hallowe'en trail being organised by the Parent Council from 16-31 October.
