Dear Alehousewells families,

With the end of term just next week, there are some items that I would like to share with you.

Parent council container project

You will be aware that the Parent council are looking for ways that they can improve our playground. Their latest project is to get the grey container that sits on the grass painted. An email went out recently asking for volunteers to help prepare the surface of the container ready for Penny Downes, the artist involved, and some P7s to paint on. Please let either us or the Parent council know if you feel you have some spare time to help get the preparatory work done.

Before Christmas, the pupils were asked to create a design for the container. Penny looked at these and created three designs for the pupils and staff to vote for. This is the winning design, one which I am sure you will agree will look fantastic painted on our container.

End of term Church service, Thursday 28 March, 9.45am

We are marking the end of term with our usual visit to Bennachie church at Kemnay on the last day of term, Thursday 28 March at 9.45am. There will be a collection at the door for our charity of the year, The British Red Cross. We are walking there and back and would welcome and parents or carers who would like to accompany us. Please contact the school office if available. Many thanks.

Scholastic Book fair

Many thanks to everyone who bought a book from the recent Book Fair. We made £76.38 commission which we can use to buy books for school.

Live Life Outdoors/Active Schools Day this Friday

This Friday, we are lucky to have been chosen to receive a day of outdoor activities for free, provided by the Live Life Outdoors and Active Schools teams. The finer details are still being finalised, but I would recommend that all pupils come suitably dressed for being outside for their class session and taking part in activities and on bikes (which will be provided). Fingers crossed for good weather as it promises to be a great day.

Parent council Disco, Thursday 7 March 6.30-8pm

Many thanks to everyone who helped organise and run the recent school disco. It was a great night with the children looking fab and enjoying dancing to the latest songs!

Parents' evenings

Parent teacher meetings are this week: phone calls on Wednesday and face to face appointments on Thursday. If you are coming into school for your meeting, please enter through the "Disco door" and wait in the vestibule for your child's class teacher to collect you. I will lay out the Lost property for you to browse through while here also. We hope you will find the discussion along with the recent report helpful. All classes have also arranged for parents to either visit for an Assembly (P4/5) or an Open hour in class to complement the information you receive about your child's progress.
